SCHEDULE X

FINANCIAL RULES

(see section 160)

PART I

Authorised expenditure and investment of corporation fund and manner of payment from the fund

1. The purposes to which the corporation fund may be applied include all objects expressly declared obligatory or discreationary by this Act and in general everything necessary for or conducive to the safety health convenience or education of the citizens of or to the amonities of the city and everything incidental to the administration and the fund shall be applicable thereto within the city suject to these rules and such further rules or special orders as the Government may prescribe or issue: and shall be applicable there to outside the city if the expenditure is authorised by this Act or specially sanctioned by the Government.

2. The items of expenditure incidental to the administration include.

(a) the provision and maintenance of a principal corporation office and record room and of other offices with the cost of appursenarees and fittings and insurance;

(b) salaries, allowances, liveries, pensionary and provident fund contributions, gratuities and pensions and the cost or line of vehicles for the commissioner and the corporation officers and servants, study leave allowances of professional officers and subordinates; sending corporation servants to any hospital or institute for treatment; the purchase of provisions and other necessaries for sale to corporation subordinates.

Explanation.—'Salary' for the purpose of this rule shalll include the privilege if any, granted by the corporation of receiving payments in kind in lieu of the whole or a portion of the salary by purchasing articles from the corportion at such prties as the corporation may fix from time to time.

(c) stationary, printing and all office and advertising expanse including the cost of reporting the discressiers of the exparties;